A person is qualified to be a member of the Foundation if:

The person is a natural person;

- a) who has been nominated for membership of the Foundation as provided by Rule 7, and
- b) is not a commercial organisation, and,
- c) does not have a conviction for animal or environmental infringements, and,
- d) has demonstrated interest in wildlife or the environment:
 - i. enrolled for 12 months in an appropriate course, or,
 - ii. been a wildlife carer for 12 months (within the last 5 years) with the confirmation of the licensing body, or
 - iii. other volunteer work with wildlife, or,
 - iv. acceptable presentation to the Board and a majority vote, and,
- e) who has been approved for membership of the Foundation by the Board of the Foundation.

WAIF membership is open to anyone with a demonstratable interest in and support to wildlife. This may be in the form of research for wildlife (including the environment), welfare (such as rehabilitation, vet or vet nurse activities), support to wildlife charities (such as making items for sale, driving, fund raising) or other services to wildlife. The application must be supported by two current members who can personally vouch for the applicant or the applicant must present details of their interest in wildlife which is found acceptable by two members, one of whom must be a Board member or the Membership Officer.
